To ensure the safety of everyone, we ask you to call in advance to place pre-orders as we are not accepting walk-ins at this moment. Additionally, we have a limited number of time slots so we cannot guarantee orders that are placed on the day of.

In regard to deliveries, we have also decided to limit the number of orders we plan on taking. Again, we advise you to call ahead to see if delivery arrangements are possible.

Individual combination plates (Combos #1 to #5) will not be available for purchase on these days as well.

For additional safety precautions, we are only allowing 4 customers on premises in the waiting area and credit/debit tap is now available.

Thank you for your understanding and all your support. If there are any questions, please do not hesitate to give us call.

Wishing you all a joyous holiday,
South City Family
